Reinstatement Policy

Adopted 1 February 1996

Revised 1 January 2004

1. If an Active member leaves the Team in good standing, that member shall be eligible to reapply for direct membership by letter. Vote of acceptance/denial shall be simple majority. Said member, if reinstated, is expected to refresh their skills and knowledge as soon as possible.
2. If a probationary member leaves the Team in good standing, that member shall be eligible to reapply from probationary membership by application. Vote of acceptance/denial shall be 2/3 majority. Said member shall receive credit for training if reinstatement is less than 1 year, if more than 1 year, training will start over.
3. If a member leaves the Team not in good standing or has acted in a manner detrimental to the Team at any time, said member must reapply as a new applicant and follow the new member (probationary) policy.
4. The decision as to standing and detrimental shall be made by a committee of the whole, with simple majority prevailing.
