Response Ready Policy

Adopted 2 November 1995

Revised 3 July 1997

Revised 2 September 2010

1. Any team member who responds to a mission, upon returning shall complete and submit mission logs to the Plans Section Chief by the next regularly scheduled meeting or as dictated by the Strike Team Leader on that mission or said member will be ineligible to respond to subsequent missions until mission logs are submitted. Should mission logs not be provided to the Plans Section Chief within 30 calendar days of initial due date, that member may be suspended from membership until current by the vote of a simple majority of the membership at any regular or special meeting.
2. Personal log books are to be immediately available for verification by the Operations Section Chief upon demand. Should a log book not be submitted when requested, that member shall be ineligible to respond until that log book is verified by the Operations Section Chief, or in his/her absence, the Team Commander. Should personal log books not be provided to the Operation Section Chief within 30 calendar days of initial request, that member may be suspended from membership until current by the vote of a simple majority of the membership at any regular or special meeting.
3. Upon returning from any activity, the bus and unit are to be in "response ready" condition before members depart.
